Yearlings Go to Mexico.

Lexington, Ky., June 17 — Milton Young.

the proprietor of the McGrathiann stud, has sold to Manual Derivas and Jose Decostellanos, of Mexico, eleven head of yearling thoroughbreds for $4,000. The youngsters will be sent to Mexico immediately and raced in the land of the Monteyunias.

This sale will lead the way, it is believed to the raising of thoroughbreds in that country.

HORSE WORLD.

One hears a good deal from year to year about breeders "stall feedling" their yearlings like cattle and keeping them sout up without exercise, etc., etc., for a long time previous to sale day. "Kelsiton," lin his capital article in yesterday's Journal upon General William H. Jackson's Belle Meade yearlings, very conclusively shows that the youngsters from famous old Belle Meade are not so treated.

At all events, no later than Friday last he "("Kelston") saw the Belle Meade and Enst Meade yearlings, the sale of which begins on Monday next at the Easton Company's Sheepshead Bay paddocks, galloping and rucing from end to end of the big hundred-acre pastures of their native place. The next day, Saturday, the young beauties, to the number of eighty head, were shipped from the home depot at Belle Meade, and on the following Monday-Monday last, June 15-by 12 o'clock they were all safe and sound, and resting in the comfortable boxes at the Sheepshead Bay sale paddocks.

Now these are facts beyond cavil or contradic-ing borse treeders and administration of the Register some ess horse generally. Househ with the sale of the Register some years ago, he retired from active participation in trotting horse fournalism, only occasally contributing an article written in the full and incisive attie which made Walls seem in trotting matters, and every effort forward the interests of the breed has his sity support and approval.
